

Australian Government
Australian Civil-Military Centre

The Australian Civil-Military Centre and the Centre for Human Rights and Humanitarian Studies are conducting focus groups into research project 'Practical considerations for the use of militaries during public health emergencies, and outbreaks'. The outcome of this work will result in a policy addition to UN Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs refresh of the Oslo Guidelines on the Use of Military and Civil Defence Assets in Disaster Relief and an operational chapter in the UN Civil-Military Coordination Field Handbook.

Two focus groups will be held at the Military and Civilian Health Security Summit
16 - 17 June 2024

We welcome all MCHSS representatives to attend. Please be in touch to register attendance at your preferred focus group, either the 16th or 17th of June 2024 to Dr Natalie McLean, research@acmc.gov.au by 14 June 2024.
